PORCUPINE

To the Public.

WHEN I determined to discontinue the publication of Porcupine's Gazette, I intended to remain for the future, if not an unconcerned, at least, a silent spectator of public transactions and political events; but, the unexpected and sweeping result of a law suit, since decided against me, has induced me to abandon my lounging intention. The suit to which I allude, was an action of slander, commenced against me in the autumn of 1797. by Doctor Benjamin Rush, the noted bleeding physician of Philadelphia. It was tried on the 14th of December last, when "the upright, enlightened and impartial Republican Jury" assessed, as damages, five thousand dollars; a sum surpassing the aggregate amount of all the damages, assessed for all the torts of this kind, ever sued for in these States, from their first settlement to the present day. To the five thousand dollars, must be added the costs of suit, the loss incurred by the interruption in collecting debts in Pennsylvania, and by the sacrifice of property taken in execution, and sold by the sheriff at public auction in Philadelphia, where a great number of books in sheets (among which was a part of the new edition of Porcupine's Works) were sold, or rather given away, as waste paper; so that, the total of what has been, and will be, wrested from me by Rush, will fall little short of eight thousand dollars.

To say that I do not feel this stroke, and very sensibly too, would be great affectation; but, to repine at it would be folly, and to sink under it would be cowardice. I knew an Englishman in the Royal Province of New Brunswick, who had a very valuable house, which, was, I believe, at that time, nearly his all, burnt to the ground. He was out of town when the fire broke out, and happened to come just after it had exhausted [illegible] bewailing how hard he had earned the property, expected to see him bitterly bewail its loss. He came very leisurely up to the spot, stood about five minutes, looking earnestly at the rubbish, then, stripping off his [illegible] coats, said he, "to earn another!" and immediately went to work, raking the spikes and bits of iron out of the ashes. This noble spirited man I have the honor to call my friend, and if ever this page should meet his eye, he will have the satisfaction to see, that, should it be impossible for me to follow, I, at least remember his example.

In the future exertions of my industry, however, pecuniary emolument will be, as it always has been with me, an object of only secondary consideration. Recent incidents, amongst which I reckon the unprecedented proceedings against me at Philadelphia, have imposed on me the discharge of a duty, which I owe to my own country as well as this, and the sooner I begin the sooner I shall have done.

On Monday, the 24th instant, therefore, I shall publish the first number of a periodical work, which, as it is intended to assist the public view in the inspecting of various tenebrous objects, will be called, and not, I presume, improperly, a Light; and, as the appearance of this light must be attributed wholly to the Philadelphian phlebotomist, gratitude will sanction the propriety of fixing to it the name of Rush. Thus, while the great literary luminaries of this enlightened nation emit their effulgence through vehicles which they most significantly term the Aurora, the Star, the Constellation, the Comet, or the Sun, I am content that my glimmering efforts should steal forth under the appellation of the Rush-Light.

I must, nevertheless, do myself the justice to assure the public, that, with the Rush-Light in his hand, any one (if the poor soul be not stone blind) will be able to see a good many very pretty things, which notwithstanding the splendor of the grand luminaries above-mentioned, would, without the aid of my little taper, remain hidden from him all the days of his life.

To say what will be the subject of the Rush-Light, would, at this time be impossible, and were it possible it would be useless, It may not, however, be amiss to observe, that as Rush is, in some sort the father of the work, a preference will certainly be given to him and his cause. These will, indeed, occupy a considerable portion of the three first numbers; and as the matter is already prepared for the press, these numbers will follow each other as speedily as may be. Of the succeeding numbers one will be published on the 15th, and one on the last day of every month.

The Rush-Light, notwithstanding the example of the patriot to whom it owes its sur-name, will never lay it down as a maxim, that cringing for a lucrative post is the best proof of a love of independence, and therefore. it asks for neither patronage nor subscribers.

Each number will contain 48 octavo pages, never less, and sometimes more, and will be enveloped in a blue wrapper, in the magazine style. The printing will be executed by Messrs. G. and R. Waite of New-York, upon excellent paper, and the best type in America.

The price of each number will be a quarter of a dollar. To booksellers at a distance the following are the terms of sale: He who pays cash for twelve copes will be allowed three over; twenty-five copies, eight over; fifty copies, twenty over; one hundred copies, fifty over; and the like in proportion for any intermediate number; but none will, on any account, be sent out of New York, till the cash is received. To gentlemen who wish to have single numbers sent on to them by post, the following information may be useful. The postage of a single number for any distance not exceeding 50 miles, will be three cents; for any greater distance not exceeding 100 miles, 4 and one half cents; for any distance above 100 miles, six cents.

HOLDERS OF
Military Land Warrants,
FOR THE PURPOSE OF LOCATING.

JAMES E. SMITH, as early as the 2d of Sept. shortly after his return from viewing the Military Land, offered his service to the holders of Military Land Warrants for the purpose of classing, registering and locating them, in consequence of an arrangement made with Mr. James Johnson in July preceding, on the land, for the purpose of exploring the sections in the whole survey. This business having been carried into compleat effect by Mr. Johnson, with the assistance of an intelligent inhabitant of that country, they having taken notes descriptive of the situation, soil and natural advantages attached to each section in the whole survey. Mr. Johnson being now here with those notes, together with the said J. F. Smith having a complete copy of the Surveyor General's return, made to the Treasury Department of the Township surveys.

Being thus informed, the subscribers, jointly, offer their services to the holders of warrants of the above description, to receive, register and locate, for which one tenth part of the land located will be required as a compensation—for locating where the registry is already made, as may be hereafter agreed on by applying to either of the subscribers. Such of the honorable the members of Congress as may now hold, or may receive warrants from their fine mediate to either of the subscribers be waited on agreeable to their appointment.

ADDRESS

To Parents, Tutors and Guardians of Youth, by S. SOLOMON, M. D. F. R. H. S.

Every person, young and old, should purchase this book, there being scarcely an individual who is not interested in some part of it—In particular it is recommended to young men and boys; as an early attention to the latter may serve to guide them against a fatal rock on which thousands have split, and be the means of preserving their bodies from disease, and also their souls, their minds, and all their faculties from destruction.

This truly interesting work has been the labour of many years experience and observation on the calamitous consequences of a secret and destructive vice, to obtain a remedy against which, the Doctor has devoted a principal part of his life. No proprietors of Boarding Schools or Academies should be without it—(Price one Dollar.)

For Nervous Disorders, Female Complaints, Gout in the Stomach, Melancholy, Seminal Weakness, loss of Appetite, Bilious Disorders, Inward Weaknesses, Indigestion, Obstinate Gleets, Juvenile Indiscretions and Premature Old Age, and every other symptom of extreme debility, which are the consequences of a Dissipated Life—excess of Pleasure or Grief—Heat or change of Climate—Immoderate use of Tea, Spirituous Liquors, or any Intemperance—Bad Lyings-in—Diseases incident to Young Girls and Women at a certain period of life—

The Cordial Restorative Balsam

Is recommended as a Medicine of specific and unparalleled virtues for the immediate relief and speedy and permanent cure of the above disorders, having stood a trial of many successful years, during which period many thousands of both sexes have been restored from the brink of the grave.

This Balsam is particularly adapted to weak female constitutions, as well as to phlegmatic habits in general; it acts powerfully as a nervine, not only to the weak stomach, but to the whole nervous system! corrects a vitiated appetite and digestion in the first passages, and assists wonderfully in recovering the tone of the urinary and genital organs:—Hence its efficacy in the most obstinate seminal gleets in men, and corresponding weaknesses in women; and hence it will contribute more safely, surely and honourably towards conjugal happiness, than any of those irritating, diabolical compositions, which are so shamefully administered to the unwary.

It is earnestly recommended to those ladies, who from repeated and difficult labours are afflicted with weaknesses and infirmities; in which same time the stomachful, strengthening at the ed organs, and the whole constitution.

Those, who in advanced life, feel the consequences of youthful indiscretions, who have brought on themselves a numerous train of evils, will by the use of this find themselves restored to health and strength, and all the melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

For whether the system has received a shock, and is debilitated from imprudence or inattention in the earliest part of life, or is sinking under the advance of years, a few doses of this medicine will afford immediate assurance of returning health and strength, by giving tone to the muscular system, and organs of digestion, and by renovating the whole constitution.

To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility: and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system; but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this Restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this Restorative.

Old coughs soon relieved and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood and emaciated limbs, will ere long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthful.

It will no doubt be acceptable to the reader, to see accounts of some of the remarkable cases and cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine, in the disorders for which it was invented; he has therefore selected a few of such cases as have come within his own immediate knowledge, which are published and may be had (gratis) at any of the places where the medicine is sold.

HUMOURS ON THE FACE AND SKIN,
Particularly pimples, blotches, tetters, ringworms, tan, freckles, sun burns, shingles, redness of the nose, neck or arms, and prickly heat,
Are effectually cured by the application of

The genuine Vegetable Lotion.

This excellent remedy has been administered by the inventor, for several years while in England, with the greatest success By the simple application of this fluid for a short time, it will remove the most rancorous and alarming scurvy in the face, which has foiled every other remedy. It possesses all the good qualities of the most celebrated cosmetics, without any of their doubtful effects. He therefore recommends it with confidence to every person so afflicted, as an efficacious and certain cure.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

The nervous, debilitated, or sedentary, whose diseases have in a great measure baffled the powers of medicine, would do well in making trial of which need only to be taken to acquire universal approbation; not only for its balsamic and restorative properties, in all decays from age, intemperance or disease; and in preserving a good constitution and mending a bad one, but for its claims to public favor, as a pleasant and wholesome breakfast; which will be found infinitely superior to Foreign Tea. Artists and others whose professions require a steady hand, will find great relief from the use of this vegetable diet, but particularly those who lead a sedentary life

A package at 75 cents will last one person for breakfast, nearly one month.

It is sold wholesale and retail only by the inventor and sole proprietor, Dr. James Church, 137 Front street, New York; Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 south Second street, Philadelphia; and Mr. Rice, Baltimore.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,
FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 28.

Justum et tenacem propositi virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus instantis tyranni,
Mente quatit solida.

MR. FENNO,

THE shameful abuses of Mr. Dallas have been heretofore so completely detected and exposed, that even his unblushing effrontery has not dared to attempt a refutation. Sensible that further investigation would only display new proofs of his malversations, he has offered no excuse for retaining in his possession 22,500 dollars of public money upwards of two years; nor has he explained his reasons for opening one account in the Bank as Paymaster, another in his private capacity, and exhausting both far, very far below the balance which he confesses to have been always in his hands unexpended. What will be the astonishment of the good people of this state when they hear that this insatiable adventurer now claims for his trifling services as paymaster the monstrous compensation of 8847 dollars and 68 cents. This charge he has actually exhibited, making it a part of his credits in his public account; and he has boldly withheld public money from the treasury to this amount. Then it is indisputably true that he held in his hands for a long time more than thirty thousand dollars, and that according to his own statement he still holds upwards of eleven thousand dollars, if these commissions are excluded!!!

Where is the revolutionary officer, or war-worn soldier who has ever reserved such an allowance for the services and hazard of years? The entire yearly pay of the Paymaster General of the United States is less than a fifth part of this sum, yet he devotes his whole time and undivided attention to that object:—Whereas Mr. D. has a salary of two thousand per ann. as secretary of the commonwealth: he has lucrative jobs from the public for revising and publishing the laws; and a great portion of his time is profitably employed in defending his particular friends in the criminal courts.

If the Secretary of War, of State, or of the Treasury were to make such a charge for all new duties devolved on them from time to time would they not be immediately impeached and displaced? Would we not find Mr. Dallas the first and loudest of their accusers? Denouncing their extortion and rapacity?

One condemning fact will stamp an indelible character upon this mysterious money agency, and explain Mr. Dallas's own private opinion of it. The committee of ways and means in February 1796 called for a statement of the accounts relative to the Western expedition on the 2d march, 1796: they received one in which Mr. D. take credit as follows:

	D.	c.
"Amount of pay rolls for which accounts and vouchers are rendered to the United States,	131,968	40
"Amount disbursed since the account was rendered about	6,600

Now this "amount disbursed since account rendered" when examined in the account really rendered, instead of being a disbursement to the troops, is found to be Mr. D's charge of "about" 6,600 dollars for his services. This claim was concealed from the committee of ways and means, as was also the additional claim of 2292 dollars and 93 cents for paying the bounty to the state line, making in the whole, the sum first mentioned. Mr. D. wrote letters at different times on this subject to different committees in 1795, 1796, 1798, which are now ready to be produced. In those letters he affects to complain of difficulties he meets in the war office, of the delays of that office, of his eagerness to terminate the agency accounts, but not a whisper, not a syllable of this extravagant demand of near 9000 dollars for his commissions.

A committee has lately been appointed in the Legislature of our State to examine these accounts of Mr. Dallas. The majority of that committee are the warm friends and political associates of Mr. D. but it is hoped that no improper consideration will move them to suppress a fair and full investigation or to abstain from inflicting exemplary punishment upon their dear, though guilty favorite.

Extract of a letter from Burlington (N. J.) to a friend in Philadelphia,

Dated February 24th, 1800.

"The commemoration of the death of General Washington, and the honors paid to his memory, in this place, affected my mind in so pleasing a manner, that I cannot refrain sending you a short account of them. I am persuaded that in no town upon the continent, of equal magnitude, were more pains taken to express the most heart-felt veneration for the illustrious deceased. All the citizens were assembled on the occasion; the ladies having previously taken their seats in the church, captain M'Ilvain's elegant company of Light Infantry, preceded by muffled drums and solemn music, led the long and mournful procession; the numerous students of the Seminary, headed by the President of the Board of Trustees, walked next, and were followed by the Principal of the Academy and the Rector of the Church; after whom marched all the public functionaries and the citizens of the town. The whole procession was regular and affecting, and conducted under the orders of Major-General Bloomfield. When arrived at the door, the troops and the students formed a lane, through which the procession moved slowly into the church, where the first sounds that saluted the ear were those of a solemn dirge, performed on the organ, by a gentleman from Philadelphia, accompanied by the deep and mellow tones of the gong; while the eye at the same time was surprized and delighted at the view of a beautiful, emblematic Obelisk, 13 feet high, erected on the stage prepared for the orator at the east end of the church. To the ladies, who designed and executed the paintings on this monument, great praise and credit are certainly due.* It stands an unequivocal evidence of their ingenuity and taste. The masonic emblems, the jewel of a past master, and an hour glass run out, appear first at the top of the Obelisk, between which is an inscription bearing the day of the General's death and his age. A figure of Fame is then represented with a trumpet to her mouth and a flowing scroll in her hand, displaying the principal scenes of his battles and victories, Trenton, Princeton, Monmouth and York. Under these is a picture of the General crowned with laurels and ornamented with the colours of the Union inverted, and other insignia of war; inscribed beneath it in golden letters are these words, How sleep the Brave!—A distant view of the sun setting in the ocean is next exhibited; a massy rock is represented in the fore ground, to which an eagle is directing her rapid flight; on the rock is "graven" (as "with an iron pen and lead"†) Constitution, and below, in golden letters, On yonder Crest; at the bottom is an elegant perspective view of a distant encampment. The whole Obelisk is painted to imitate marble, and the sable drapery which hung behind the profusion of gilding, and the judicious selection of colouring gave it a funereal and truly melancholy and affecting. As to the arts and words were eminently calculated to call forth sentiments congenial with the occasion, and the execution did credit to the composition. The ladies and gentlemen who assisted on this occasion displayed such sweetness of modulation and aptitude for musical excellence, that I could not help wishing a greater attention to musical improvement among us, than generally prevails—I wish you could have heard them execute the two following lines, altered from Collins's beautiful little Ode:

"By weeping maids his dirge was sung,
"By mourning swains his knell was rung"

Pope ode, Vital Spark, was also very ably performed, and had a visible effect upon the audience. The music was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Staughton, principal of the academy, and therefore I need not tell you that it was done with propriety and judgment; a prayer suitable to the occasion was introduced by the Rev. Dr. Wharton, Rector of the Church; and the oration was delivered by your friend William Griffith, Esq. As this discourse will shortly be published, I shall say no more of it at present, than that it fully answered the high expectations I had formed of it, from the acknowledged abilities and patriotism of its author; it was elegant without profuseness, instructive without dogmatism, federal without animosity, combined harmony of language with energy of reasoning, and the ornaments of rhetoric, with the simplicity of truth.

* These Ladies I understand are Miss Mary Ann M'Ilvaine of Burlington, and Miss M'Lean of Elizabeth Town.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, February 27.

Another member, to wit, John Smith, Esq. (in the room of Jonathan Nicoll Havens Esq. deceased) from New-York, appeared this day, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Page presented a petition of Samuel Craik, a soldier during the Revolutionary War, which was read and referred to the Committee of claims.

Mr. Davis said, as the House did not think proper yesterday to indulge him in the adoption of the resolution then proposed, he hoped they would adopt the following, and enable him to obtain all the evidence upon the subject which could be had—viz.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to direct the proper officer to lay before this House, a copy of the proceedings of the Court held in the district court of South Carolina, in the case of Thomas Nash, calling himself Jonathan Robbins.

Messrs. Bayard, Otis, Dana, Marshall and Rutledge, spoke against it—and Messrs. Smith, Livingston, and Nicholas, in favor of it.

Mr. Otis having mentioned, that he was authorised by the Secretary of State, to say, that he had no further authenticated transcript than had been submitted to the House;

Mr. Nicholas, after a few observations recommended to Mr. Davis to withdraw his resolution—which having been done, Mr. N. moved the following:

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives, be requested to procure from the Clerk of the district Court of South Carolina, copies, under seal, of the proceedings of that Court, together with the evidences produced in the case relative to the requisition for Thomas Nash, alias Jonathan Robbins, who was delivered to his Britannic Majesty's Consul.

Mr. Harper moved that the resolution be postponed till this day week—and was replied to by Messrs. Nicholas and Gallatin; when

Mr. H. Lee, said, he hoped the gentleman from South Carolina would withdraw his motion for postponement—He might vote upon this subject, Mr. H. Lee, said, different from his friends—but he would do this, because he had no objection that the Speaker should write the letter which the resolution contemplated—and in the interim, the house should go into Committee of the whole upon the subject, and proceed upon the discussion as far as the President was implicated, and at a future day upon the conduct of the Judge of South Carolina.

Mr. Dana applauded the principle of the hon. gentleman last up, who like a veteran officer, boldly met his enemy without artifice or evasion; but he was not willing to concede so far: If we wanted to make further enquiry, appoint a select committee for that purpose. He never heard of the Speaker of a body like this, being instructed to enquire into facts. Mr. D. concluded with remarking on the manner in which the business was introduced; and the inability its advocates felt to maintain the ground they had taken, and by expressing a wish, the resolution would not be adopted.

Messrs. Harper and Bayard also spoke in favor of the postponement, and Messrs. Varnum, Randolph and Jones against it, when the question was taken—Yeas 32—Nays 67.

The question then recurred upon adopting the resolution, when Mr. Marshall spoke at length against it.—He contended there was no prospect of coming to a decision of the original question this session if this were adopted and asked if the character of the President of the United States ought to be held up in the suspicious view in which the resolution placed it, until the next session of Congress?—He hoped not. It seemed to him that a postponement amounted to a declaration to the people of America, that there was much cause for suspicion, and that additional evidence was wanted to substantiate it.

Mr. Nicholas replied to Mr. Marshall, and contended, that the whole truth of the case was to come out of the additional testimony now asked for.

An adjournment was then called for, and negatived—ayes 30.

Mr. Randolph spoke in favour of the resolution, and in answer to Mr. Marshall, when the question was taken, and negatived—Yeas 44—Noes 51.

Adjourned.

NEW-LONDON, February 24.

Extract of a letter from Capt. Moses Tryon dated on board the United States ship Connecticut, 10 leagues E. N. E. from Diseada, Jan. 10, 1800, to a Gentleman in Middletown.

"I have been able to reduce it to a certainty, that the Connecticut, is, perhaps, the fastest sailing ship in these seas. I have had a fair trial with several British men of War; I likewise had an opportunity to try her sailing with the Insurgent, Capt. Murry and the Adams, Capt. Morris, both of which I have fairly beaten by the wind, and I think I can say, she sails equally well from the wind. On the whole I am not afraid to have a fair look at any thing that floats on the ocean. I have had the good fortune to fall in with the French privateer brig, the Conqueror of Italy; mounting 12 guns and sixty two men; (having manned six prizes in the course of her cruise; which I captured the 29th ult. on her return to Point Petre; she has done more injury to our commerce than any other privateer out of Guadaloupe; having by accounts, taken two hundred American vessels; she has run upwards of four years, and had bid defiance to all British frigates."

Baltimore, February 25.

Captain R. left Batavia, 19th October, in company, with ships Mary. Phillips, for Baltimore; John Jay, Olney, Providence; Zenobia, De Peyster, New York; Criterion, Chase, Boston. Parted from the Mary off Jarva Head, and from the rest of the fleet in lat. 13, S. long. 98, E. all well; they intended to keep together till they reached the Cape of Good Hope. Passed the Straits of Sunda the 25th of October, and happily found it clear of French privateers, with which they had been much infested.

Passenger in the Triumph, Mr. John R. Parker. late supercargo of the ship Annubis, of Boston, which was lost at the Cape of Good Hope, on the 5th November, in a very heavy gale of wind, in which the Sceptre, English 64 gun ship, the Oldenberg, a Danish 64, an English whaler, a brig from Salem, with four other smaller vessels were totally lost, with many lives. The gale was of short duration, but extremely severe, heaving into Table Bay a most tremendous sea.

Sir G. Young, governor, and sir Roger Curtis, with a fleet from England, arrived at the Cape early in December, at which time every thing was very tranquil, peace having been effected with the Caffries—provisions were plenty and cheap.

The Jefferson, captain Morris of Philadelphia, and the Eliza, captain Folger, of Boston, were at the Cape, bound to Batavia.

A strong fleet of English men of war was cruising off the Isle of France. An engagement had lately happened between the Jupiter, an English 54, and the La Prenеuse, a French 44 wherein the former got very roughly handled, being unluckily unable to open her lower tier of ports.

HAMILTON's ELIXIR,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY
For Colds, obstinate Coughs, Catarrhs, Asthmas, Sore-throats, and approaching Consumptions.

THOUSANDS are too well acquainted with the nature and effects of empirical medicines daily offered for the cure of the above complaints; dear bought experience has taught them that oily and heating medicines joined with strong opiates (or sleepy drugs) repeated doses of which, flatter and deceive the patient for the present, by procuring momentary ease; experience, I say, has taught thousands that the common opiates and balsams, as they are called, finally aggravate every disorder of the breast and lungs in their most distressing symptoms; that they load the stomach and impair the digestion, inflame the whole system increase the difficulty of breathing, and excite fever.—But the qualities of this valuable discovery are evinced by perfectly opposite effects. A SINGLE TRIAL WILL PROVE that it restores the determination of the fluids to the surface of the body, and brings on the common, healthful perspiration; that it dislodges and evacuates the tough, viscid phlegm, or mucus, strengthens the weakened vessels of the lungs, sheathes the acrimonious humours which irritate the lungs, and finally discharges them. Thus striking at the root of the disorder, the symptoms are of course, effectually and permanently conquered, the reverse of common medicines, which weaken the constitution and give strength to the disorder, for the sake of moderating for the present, some of its painful effects.

TO PARENTS
Who may have Children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH.

This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable; the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

DR. HAMILTON's
Genuine Essence and Extract of MUSTARD.

For Rheumatisms, Gout, Palsey, Sprains, &c. a great number of attested cures may be seen at the place of sale Dr. Hamilton's Grand Restorative for constitutions debilitated by intemperance of any kind; and for the cure of Nervous Complaints, Inward Weakness, Obstinate Gleets, Fluor Albus in women, &c.

Hamilton's justly celebrated Worm Lozenges, the infallible Itch Ointment, Dr. Leroux's Indian Vegetable Specific for Venereal Complaints, Ague and Fever Drops which had never failed effecting a cure, Dr. Hahn's Antibilious Pill, ditto Corn Plaister, the Persian Lotion for the face and skin, Gowland's Lotion, Church's Cough Drops, Anderson's Pills.

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE

Is recommended (particularly to the Ladies) as an elegant and pleasant preparation for chopped and sore lips, and every blemish and inconvenience occasioned by colds, fevers, &c. speedily restoring a beautiful rosy colour and delicate softness to the lips.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER
FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, absorbing all that acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

☞ Those who wish to procure the medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above.

Wholesale purchasers will receive a liberal allowance by application to LEE & Co. Baltimore, who have obtained the general agency for the United States.

For the TEETH, BREATH, and SCURVY in the GUMS, and the TOOTH ACHE.

The Anti-Scorbutic Tincture

Is unequalled for cleansing, whitening, and preserving the teeth, and effectually curing the scurvy in the gums. It will prevent the teeth from further decay, fasten them if loose, and render the breath perfectly sweet.

[Price one dollar each bottle.]

AND THE

Volatile Tincture for the Tooth Ache.

The most efficacious remedy ever discovered for that tormenting pain. It gives immediate and permanent relief in the most violent cases; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and may with safety be applied to pregnant women or to children.

[Price 37½ cents.]

Prepared only by Dr. Church, New York, and sold by Messrs H. and P. Rice, 16 south Second street, Philadelphia.

The only Medicine in the world that cures the most inveterate Itch in four hours.

The genuine patent Scotch Ointment.

For pleasantness, safety, expedition, ease and certainty, is infinitely superior to any other medicine, for the cure of

THE ITCH.

It is so certain in its operation, that it has never failed in any one instance whatever, of effectually curing that disagreeable disorder in four hours, by one application only, though applied to many thousands in England, Scotland and Ireland. It does not contain one particle of mercury, (see the affidavit*) but may be applied with the greatest safety, to the most delicate lady during pregnancy, or the tenderest infants.

The proprietor is so certain of its infallibility, that he engages to return the money to any person on whom it did not perform a cure in four hours.

Prepared only by the inventor and sole proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his dispensary, 137 Front street, near the Fly market, New York; and sold by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 south Second street, Philadelphia; and Mr. Rice, Baltimore.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

March 11*th*, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Pursuant to the act of Congress passed on the 1st day of June, one thousand, seven hundred and ninety six, entitled "an act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military services, and for the society of United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathen;" and the act supplementary to the said recited act passed on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine——to wit:

I.

THAT the tract of Land herein after described, namely, "beginning at the North West corner of the seven ranges of townships, and running thence fifty miles due south, along the western boundary of the said ranges;—thence due West to the Main Branch of the Scioto river; thence up the Main Branch of the said river to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the same;—thence along the said boundary line to the Tuscaroras branch of the Muskingum river at the crossing place above Fort Lawrence; thence down the said river, to the point where a line run due west from the place of beginning, will intersect the said river; thence along the line so run to the place of beginning;" has been divided into townships of five miles square, and fractional parts of townships; and that plats and surveys of the said townships and fractional parts of townships are deposited in the offices of the Register of the Treasury and Surveyor General, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

II.

The holders of such warrants as have been or shall be granted for military services performed during the late war, are required to present the same to the Register of the Treasury, at some time prior to the twelfth day of February in the year, one thousand eight hundred, for the purpose of being registered; No registry will however be made of any less quantity than a quarter township, or four thousand acres.

III.

The priority of location of the warrants which may be presented and registered in manner aforesaid, prior to the 12th day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred, will immediately after the said day, be determined by lot, in the mode described by the act first recited.

IV.

The holders of registered warrants, shall on Monday the 17th day of February, in the year 1800, in the order of which the priority of location shall be determined by lot as aforesaid, personally, or by their agents, designate in writing at the office of the Register of the Treasury, the particular quarter townships elected by them respectively, and such of the said holders as shall not designate their locations on the said day, shall be postponed in locating such warrants to all other holders of registered warrants.

V.

The holders of warrants for military services sufficient to cover one or more quarter townships or tracts of four thousand acres each; shall, at any time after Monday the 17th day of February, 1800 and prior to the first day of January, 1802, be allowed to register the said warrants in manner aforesaid, and forthwith to make locations therefor on any tract or tracts of land not before located.

VI.

All warrants or claims for lands on account of military services, which shall not be registered and located before the first day of January, 1802, are by the supplementary act of Congress herein before recited, passed on the second day of March, 1799, declared to be forever barred.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned.

OLIVER WOLCOTT.
Sec. of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

May 29*th*, 1799.

THE proprietors of certificates issued for subscriptions to the Loan bearing interest at eight per centum per annum, are notified, that at any time after payment shall have been made of the 5th instalment, which will become due during the first ten days of the month of July ensuing, Certificates of Funded Stock may at their option be obtained at the Treasury or Loan Offices, respectively, for the amount of the four first instalments, or one moiety of the sums expressed in the subscription certificates:—No certificates of Funded Stock will however be issued for less than one hundred dollars.

Such subscription certificates as may be presented at the Treasury or Loan Offices in consequence of the foregoing arrangement, will be indorsed and distinctly marked so as to denote, that a moety of the stock has been issued.

FOR THE
CURE OF THE RHEUMATISM,

Palsy, gout, lumbago, white swellings, sprains, bruises, numbness, chilblains, acute chronic rheumatism, rheumatic gout, is recommended

Dr. CHURCH's
Chemical Extract and Essence of Mustard,

Prepared only by Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, New-York.

There perhaps is no malady to which the human frame is subject, that has had more applications of various kinds administered as remedies, than the Rheumatism: nor is there scarce a disorder that has resisted with like force the attempts made to remove it.

The virtues of the Essence and Extract of Mustard, will be found to equal, if not excel those of any other medicine whatever, in the cure of the above complaints. The following is copied from the London Pharmacopiæ and is the opinion of the College of Physicians concerning this valuable Drug.

"Mustard, by its acrimony and pungency; stimulates the solids, and attenuates viscid juices, and hence is deservedly recommended for exciting appetite, promoting digestion, encreasing the fluid secretions; also paralytic and rheumatic affections."

These medicines contain all the virtues that can possibly be derived from that excellent and powerful vegetable. The Essence is prepared in a fluid state, and is singularly efficacious as an external application; common rheumatisms, Sprains, Chilblains, Stiff Necks, Swelled joints, Bruises, Frozen Feet, local pains in any part of the body or extremities, Swelled Faces, chopped hands, &c. will be found to yield to its benign influence in a few hours. The Extract is prepared in the form of pills, and being an internal remedy is an amazing additional improvement, taken in the severest cases of the Rheumatic Gout, Chronic Rheumatism, Palsy, fixed pains, Lumbago, Numbness, Gouts, &c.—When the essence is externally applied it promotes gentle perspiration, and operates very mildly by urine; they also amend a weak digestion, and strengthen the stomach.

Sold as above with printed directions for use. Where also may be had, CHURCH's COUGH DROPS, a medicine unequalled by any in the world for the cure of Coughs; Colds, Asthmas and Consumptions.—Also by Mr Price, Baltimore, and Messrs. H. & P. Rice, 16, South Second Street, Philadelphia.
